ABSTRACT:

F. Kassel

Geometric structures and representations of discrete groups

Let X be a homogeneous space of a Lie group G. We will define the fundamental notion of a (G,X)-structure on a manifold, give examples, and explain how (G,X)-structures may give rise to interesting representations of the fundamental group of the manifold into G, such as Anosov representations.