

Title: Combinatorics, finite fields and geometry

Lecturer: Fernando RODRIGUEZ-VILLEGAS

The goal of this course is to discuss how combinatorics (the art of counting) can be used to study questions in geometry (the science of shapes). We will introduce from scratch the setup of geometry over finite fields and the machinery of symmetric functions. We will then show how to use the powerful tool of symmetric functions to obtain geometric results.