

Speaker: Dionysios Anninos

Title: Aspects of Quantum de Sitter

Abstract: We review recent developments in the study of asymptotically de Sitter spaces. The developments concern both a more global, cosmological perspective, as well as that of the physics associated to a quasi-local observer surrounded by the cosmological event horizon. Euclidean gravity methods are also discussed and contrasted to those of black holes.