

Workshop on Communication in Extreme Environments for Science and Sustainable Development

20 - 24 November 2023
An ICTP Meeting
Trieste, Italy

Access to the Internet is still limited in rural and remote environments. This limits the amount of scientific data we can obtain from these areas and affects the populations living there. In this workshop we will bring together researchers and practitioners in order to gain experience and insight into the challenges that such environments pose for the network and the users.

Directors:

M.-S. ALOUINI, KAUST, Saudi Arabia
A. FÖRSTER, University of Bremen, Germany
P. MANZONI, Polytechnical University of Valencia, Spain
E. PIETROSEMOLI, ICTP, Italy

Topics:

- Optical communications
- Delay tolerant networking
- Low-power devices and protocols
- Sustainable communication networks
- Connecting the unconnected
- Non terrestrial networks

Local Organiser:

M. ZENNARO, ICTP, Italy

How to apply:
