Geospatial Data Management for Energy Access Modelling and Planning - Budinich Lecture Hall (LB) (09:00-17:00)

The 21-25 July week will focus on hands-on activities, with short lectures introducing each practical exercise. These activities will provide skills on creating and documenting plans for energy access planning and data governance, which can be applied in your respective countries after the workshop. The final deliverable will be a presentation and report outlining your findings
