

Abstract

We compute the time scale at which the mutual information becomes small in a thermal state perturbed by the insertion of a local primary operator in a 2d CFT in the limit of large central charge.