

QUESTIONNAIRE

(1) Why are you interested in citizen science? Have you ever participated in a citizen science project? If so please describe the project, your role, and the overall results. Whether experienced or not, please describe how you envision citizen science contributing to your area of work.

(2) Please describe your interest in and experience with using and/or developing open-source hardware and software. Please give an example of a situation which in your opinion:

- (a) the term "open-source" should apply and
- (b) the term "open-source" should not apply.

(3) Are you familiar with basic electronics including soldering and assembling devices? Please indicate if you have formal/informal training or experience and give details of any projects you have undertaken.

(4) Please describe your level of ability regarding the design of electronic circuits, from novice to professional.

(5) Please describe your level of ability regarding software programming, from novice to professional, including coding languages you have a functional knowledge of, if any.

(6) either (a) or (b) (NOT both)

(a) Should you wish to request to be considered for the loan of a Safecast bGeigie nano please give a short description of how you would intend to make use of it over a 2 year period.

(b) I do not wish to be considered for the loan of a Safecast bGeigie nano
- candidate confirmation.