

You can check the correct timing of the talks by choosing your time zone (in place of of Europe/Rome) on the top right of the page and the programme time will be modified accordingly.

The image shows the top navigation and header area of the Marie Curie Library website. At the top, a dark grey bar contains the text 'Visit', 'Women in Science', and 'Marie Curie Library', along with a grid icon and a search icon. Below this is a large graphic of a world map composed of blue dots. To the right of the map is an orange 'DONATE' button. A blue navigation bar contains 'Research', 'Scientific Calendar', and 'Programmes', each with a downward arrow. Below the navigation bar, the text 'Europe/Rome' is highlighted with a red box, and 'Administration' is visible to its right.
