

Arnold diffusion in a priori chaotic systems

Dimitry Turaev

Abstract:

Consider a Hamiltonian system with a chaotic behavior (a transverse homoclinic orbit) in every energy level. We show that an arbitrarily small non-autonomous generic real-analytic perturbation creates orbits of unbounded drift in the energy.