

Quantum Interference Phenomena in Triple Quantum Dot Circuits

Andrew SACHRAJDA
University of Waterloo
National Research Council
1200 Montreal Road
Building M-50, Room 193P
Ottawa, KIA 0R6
CANADA

In this talk I will review the various roles that quantum interference plays in our investigations of the properties of few electron triple quantum dot circuits. These range from Landau-Zener -Stuckelberg oscillations to a single phonon absorption phenomena that occurs as a quantum backaction channel during the measurement process.