

Marked length spectral rigidity for flat metrics

C. Leininger
(University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign)

I will describe recent work with Anja Bankovic proving that the marked length spectrum of a nonpositively curved Euclidean cone metric determines the metric up to isometry isotopic to the identity. The proof is mostly elementary and suggests a stronger rigidity result for this class of metrics, which I will explain.